Dear Teachers, Parents and Guardians,

Keeping our children safe when online is important. Even though our kids may think that they are savvy Internet users, it is important that they realize the Internet poses many risks. Each web and mobile application, such as games, social networking and entertainment, present different safety concerns. This booklet provides basic safety tips to share with your students to keep them safe while using the Internet. Help us keep your kids safe online. Please review this booklet with your students and have them take the Cyber Safety Pledge at the end of this booklet.

Sincerely,
Your Friends
at the
New Jersey
Division of Consumer Affairs

Cyber Safety Pledge

I pledge that:

1. I will never share any personal information online such as my name, nickname, address, phone number, pet's name or school name without first talking to my parent or guardian.
2. I will only share my user names and passwords with my parents.
3. I will not open emails or messages from people I do not know.
4. I will not talk to strangers online or meet face-to-face with anyone from the Internet.
5. I will always be polite and respectful of others online and will not be rude or mean online.
6. I will tell my parent, guardian or teacher if anything online makes me feel uncomfortable, scared, sad or confused.
7. I will only post pictures or videos with my parent's approval.
8. I will create a unique user ID to play online with my friends so that I do not reveal anything personal about myself.

Great Job!

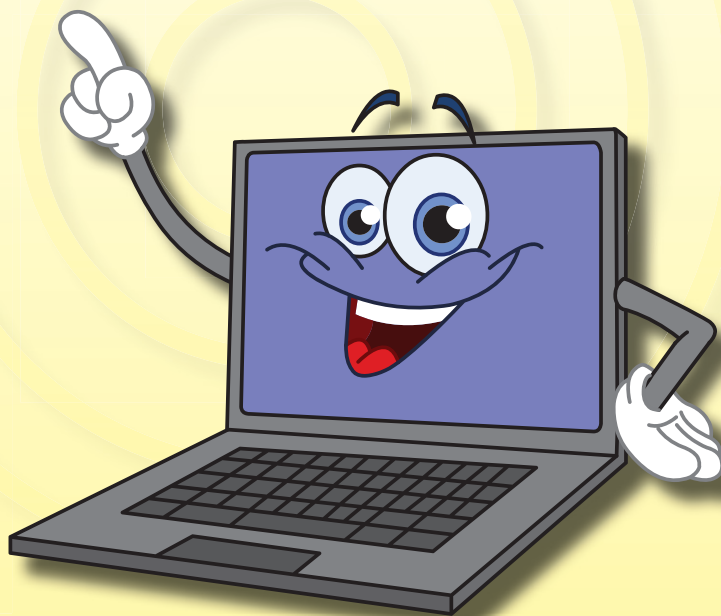

We hope you learned something new today about how to be safe when you are online.

Congratulations!

Make sure to share what you've learned with your family and friends.
